If a project is lost or a new control panel is used an integrator can download from iRidium Cloud copies of all projects and work with them.