

All created projects automatically get into the cloud. If an integrator uses a new device to work in i3 lite, all projects created before can be restored from the cloud. To do it, go to "Cloud" section, you'll find there all projects made by you. To download a project onto a panel, choose the required project and in the window that appears choose "Download Project".