When all parameters are input i3 lite automatically creates a remote control to control your device and will add it to the list of added devices.