

Manual addition of devices. Some devices can't be found automatically, that's why Add device manually mode was created. To add a device manually go to Add device manually section. After i3 lite shows a list of available devices, select one of them and enter net and system (if any) parameters of the device.