

When a project is made and created, it must be uploaded into the cloud to pay for the license and give the project to the user. To upload a project into the cloud, go to Cloud section and select Upload to Cloud. After this a project is saved in the cloud and an automation object is created in the integrator's account.