

Starting with 1.2.6 version remote control can be set via iRidium cloud gate, that:

- does not decrease security when controlling a project remotelly
- does not require port forwarding
- does not require white IP-address
- is easy to set