

Remote (a remote control) is a graphical area to control SubDevices. Unlike widgets, it can have free size and position. And it is displayed on call. Remote is displayed when a button to go to the remote control is pressed on a widget. Items to control equipment are placed on Remote (buttons, lists, switches, levels). There can be from 0 to several remote controls. Example of Remote: