Create a project without a server, add a server in the configurator. In My Account on the web-site you have a license, assign it to the project.